NEW YORK, January 21 .- Sir Joseph Suveen, international art dealer and critic, reiterated in a formal answer filed in court today the criticism that led Mrs. Andre Hahn of Paris, to sue him for $500,000-the assertion that he did not believe Mrs. Hahn's painting. "La Belle Ferroniere" was a work of Leonardo Da

Mrs. Hahn, in her suit filed last

Mrs. Hahn, in her suit filed last November, alleged Sir Joseph's adverse comment on the canvas had prevented its sale to the Kansas City Art Institute, although she maintained its authenticity had been proved in many ways, including identification of the master's finger prints in the paint.

In his answer Sir Joseph sets forth that it not only is his opinion that the painting is not a Da Vinci, but this opinion is shared by several prominent crities. Among them he named Raymond Wyer, of the Worcester Art Museum; Edward K. Forbes, of the Forg Art Museum, of Harvard University; Francis Jewett Mather, professor of art at Princeton; Charles Loeser of Florènce, Italy and S. De Ricci, of the Louvre, Paris.

Answers in Detail.

Sir Joseph's answer went in detail into his appraisal of the painting, saying as a Da Vinci it was far below the master's standard.

"It does not show the consummate skill and grasp of the human structure that is fundamental in the works of Leonardo," the answer says. "The head is attached to the shoulders in poor fashion, the flesh below the chin is not natural, the neck itself is a clumsy cylinder of flesh, and the left profile of the neck is out of design. The paintings by Leonardo of St. Jerome, the Adoration of St. John, Mona Lisa, St. Ann of the Annunciation, show that Leonardo is a consummate master."

Being Progressive Morticians our ideals are for greater usefulness to better serve mankind, always putting yester-day on trial and keeping abreast and improving as modern developments advance. The use of our chapel with its homelike surroundings and every convenience is becoming more and more favored.

The size of many houses and the inconvenience of holding services from the average flat or apartment house is partly responsible for this, but the tion of having such a service, free from the annoyance of reversing every custom and arrangement of the home.

Our superior skill, our spirit of service, is stimulated by our immediate interest in winning new friends and retaining old

$200,000.00 Laundress Wants a Job

I am probably the most ex-pensive laundress in Washington, because I am worth every bit of $200,000.00. If cleanliness is next to Godliness, isn't it worth $200,000.00 to always have clean clothes and clean linen? It may be a trifle high to you, but you will learn that it is economy to have a $200,-000.00 laundress. I will start working for you immediately. A tribute of love to the memory our dear mother, PHILIPPINE ASH, who entered into eternal rest one year ago to day, January 22, 1921. HER CHILDREN.

We mourn for you, dear father,
But not with the outside show;
For the heart that mourns sincerely
Mourns silently and low.
HIS SONS, ROBERT AND RUSSELL. DOWNES. In loving memory of BLANCHE A DOWNES, who died two years ago today Japuary 22, 1920.

And with the morn That angel face will smile, which we have loved long since And lost awhile. THE FAMILY.

ESRITE. In loving remembrance of our deal mother and sister-in-law, ANNA H. ESKITE, who died one year ago yesterday, January 21, 1921. I little guessed how much she did, To smooth my pathway day by day, How much of joy she brought to me. How much of care she brushed away.

But now that I must tread alone
The theronghfare of life, I find
How many burdens I was spared
By her who was true and kind.
HER LOVING SON WILBERT. In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly tender, fond and true:
There is not a day that passes, dear Anna,
That we do not think of you.

NETTIE AND JOB.

HUGHSTON. 1- sad and loving remembrance of our son and brother, CLINTON DE WITT HUGHSTON, who departed this life three cars ago, January 22, 1919.

Just a line of sweet remembrance, Just a memory fond and true, Just a token of love's devotion That our hearts still long for you, MAMMA, PAPA AND SISTERS.

we have a loved one in that city.
Who left us fourteen years ago.
And with joy we hope to meet her
Where no farewell tears will flow.
HER LOVING CHILDREN. KUNOWSKY. Sarred to the memory of our beloved mother. AMELIA M. KUNOWSKY, who departed this life two years ago today, January 22, 1929.

Often in our hearts comes a bitter cry.

"Why did our beloved mother die?"

Then comes the answer, so comforting and sweet,

"She is not dead, but only asleep,"

HER LOVING DAUGHTERS, CLARA AND AMELIA.

KUNOWSKY. In sad and loving remembrance of our dear wife and mother, AMELIA KUNOWSKY, who died two years ago to-day, January 22, 1920, at 736 New Jersey ave. n.w.

God has called my loving wife, Took the one we loved so dear. To fill her place there is no other, Yet I know she did her share.

We mourn for you, dear mother,
But not with the outside show.
For the heart that mourns sincerely
Mourns silently and low.
HER LOVING HESRAND, CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN, BROTHER AND SISTERS.

McCATHRAN. In memory of my friend, MOR-GAN S. McCATHRAN, who departed this life one year ago today, January 22, 1921.

Today recalls the memory
Of 2 dear friend hid to rest,
For those who often think of him
Are the ones who knew him best.
WALTER J. WONDRACK. The angels called our friend Morgan, And be has gone home to rest: His sufferings now are over And God's will is always best, THE EPWORTH LEAGUE OF WAUGH M. E. CHURCH.

PLEASANTS. In sad but loving remembrance of our father, CHARLES G. PLEASANTS, who departed this life four years ago, Jan-uary 22, 1918.

Dearest father, how we miss you. Since from earth you passed away. And our hearts are aching sorely As we think of you each day. But we know that you are happy In the mansions of the blest, Where there is no pain or sorrow. In your sweet, eternal rest.

Tis a blessed thought in store,
The law a happy hope in heaven,
When the tolks of life are o'er.
HIS DEVOTED SON AND DAUGHTER
JOHN C PLEASANTS AND INEZ L
